MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Counterintelligence Staff
Directorate for Operations

THROUGH: Deputy Director for Operations

FROM: William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Designation of Coordinating Officials with Respect to FBI Intelligence Activities Conducted
Outside the United States

1. The procedures agreed upon by the Director of Central Intelligence and the Attorney General governing FBI intelligence activities conducted outside the United States provide that the FBI may not investigate or participate in intelligence investigations or conduct intelligence activities outside the United States without the coordination of the Director of Central Intelligence or his designees.

2. Pursuant to these procedures, I hereby designate Chief, Counterintelligence Staff as the primary coordinating official for all such FBI intelligence activities to be conducted outside the United States. Chiefs of Stations abroad are also designated as coordinating officials for FBI intelligence activities outside the U.S. at their respective posts with policy guidance provided by Chief, Counterintelligence Staff as required.
